

LOS ANGELES: VINTAGE COOL VIRTUAL CITY WALK

Additional reading/suggested links...

To learn more about the L.A. Conservancy, go to: <https://www.laconservancy.org/>

During the Beverly Hills Hotel section and the reference to Paul R. Williams:

- The Conservancy is launching a campaign celebrating Paul Revere Williams and his work this coming April. Stay tuned! <https://www.laconservancy.org/architects/paul-r-williams>

During the Pacific Design Center review:

- <https://www.laconservancy.org/locations/pacific-design-center>
- To learn more about great Los Angeles 1970s architecture, check out the Conservancy's microsite: <https://www.laconservancy.org/curating-city-70s-turn-50>

During the Angels Flight section:

- More info available at: <https://www.angelsflight.org/>

During Grand Central Market:

- More info available at: <https://www.grandcentralmarket.com/>

During the Bradbury section:

- More info available at: <https://www.laconservancy.org/locations/bradbury-building>

During the Los Angeles Theatre:

- Learn more about L.A.'s Broadway and historic theatres, including the L.A. Conservancy's annual Last Remaining Seats film series: <https://www.laconservancy.org/last-remaining-seatsgreetings-broadway>
- Los Angeles Historic Theatre Foundation is another organization working to preserve L.A.'s great movie palaces: <https://www.lahtf.org/>

During the Bonaventure:

- More info available at: <https://www.laconservancy.org/locations/westin-bonaventure-hotel-and-suites>
- Learn more about L.A.'s Modern architecture at: <https://www.laconservancy.org/modern>

Check out more virtual tours and events at the L.A. Conservancy!
<https://www.laconservancy.org/upcoming-events>